

Allegri: Miserere

16

From Ps 50, "Miserere" recorded in London's Westminster Cathedral, the cathedral church of Cardinal Basil Hume, the Archbishop of Westminster. <sup>This is the</sup> ~~And today~~ <sup>the third</sup> in a series of extracts from his book "To Be A Pilgrim", A Spiritual Notebook, published in 1984 by St Paul Publications. The first section of the book is titled <sup>titled</sup> "I am a Pilgrim, on the way to God are seeking a direction". "We are all, in a sense, two persons", writes the Cardinal: "This is, of course, in a manner of speaking only. There is the outer person --- QQ. id P 42-44 t — Reflect prayerfully now a few minutes on these thoughts, from Cardinal Hume in his book "To Be A Pilgrim". And for a prayer in music now, still staying in England for this music: Orlando Gibbons' anthem, "O Lord in thy wrath"

MUSIC - PRAYER (St Anselm
id. p 52)

And another one of the Pilgrim Ps's today: Ps 124, on the rock that is our faith

Finally, Cardinal Hume again: QQ. id. p 45-6 t.

Tudor Anthems
12