Cardinal Basil Hume's book "To Be A Pilgrim". A Spiritual Notebook, published in England in 1984 by St Paul Publications, is really a collection made of various addresses, formal speeches, parish sermons, notes, of the Cardinal put together with some specially written pieces, under general headings: "just the thoughts of one pilgrim", he wrote, "to help some of the others". And it's in hope of sharing the Cardinal's helpfulness more widely, that I'm presenting you with this series of readings from his book, for your reflection and prayer. This thought of his, for instance: 'God looks for us' QQ p 50b-51
