

11.2.93

Nossa Luba
(Sanctus) #4

ANGELUS

Hello again: are in Morning Prayers this morning, a Celtic flavour again, is prayer & reflection. I came across this very human portrait in a quoted extract from an introduction to a book, 'An Old Woman's Reflections' by an Irishwoman better-known a generation ago, Peig Sayers. The writer was W.R. Rogers, and this is his memory & reflection, ...

QQ. Tablet 18/2/92 p 914

- from W.R. Rogers: an introd. to Peig Sayers' 'An Old Woman's Reflections'

In music now, 2 short Hymns to Mary, by Geoffrey Dawson & sung by the choir

Cast Plain Bells
#3 3:21

of Chichester Cathedral - England

MUSIC

"Hail Queen of Heaven
Blessed by the Lord, bright."

A Celtic prayer, on the Creation of Heaven

QQ. Celtic fire p 103

QQ. id 94-5

[And - ~~the~~ similar record to that, this reflection on earth for the earth

QQ. Tablet 23/5/92

p 658]