Make the history.
(Dane)

Hello again: Last Thursday I was reading for you from a letter about prayer, written by St Augustine some 1500 yrs ago to his friend Proba. And in introducing the quotes from it, I was remarking how all our questions about prayer, and all the systems & practices and everything else have to lead us back in one way or another to what Jesus said and how He taught the disciples of His who asked Him how they shd. pray. And Augustine of course too takes the same track in his letter: let's listen this morning to some of what he wrote
