OUR FATHER

One of the big difficulties a lot of people have about God in their lives, and about prayer, is that it seems so often to be a one-way affair — God seems to remain silent, unanswering when we talk to Him. And people do give up praying because they haven't been able to hear God's side of the conversation so to speak. But there is another side to the story, well put, I think, in these few paragraphs by Michel Quoist: Q.

"Christ is Alive!" p150r - 151r.

For a prayer in music today, listen to the Passion Motet written in 1597 by Giovanni Gabrieli; O Dorothea, Jesu Christo — Lord Jesus Christ.

MUSIC: PRAYERS.
