Dear Ps 66
(RHX)

Glory be to the Father & to the Son & to the H. Sp., as it was in the beginning so be it now & forever

Yesterday afternoon there was a great spirit of excitement & joy in anticipation for the coming New Yr. festival — at least along the roads of the N. Territ., with all the flowers & plum blossom trees, & families out bringing home their decorations & symbols for prosperity & good health at this family festival time. Different no doubt from the traffic-jam atmosphere in Kowloon & HK. And today's weather, too, carries the friendly & joyful spirit. For tomorrow evening, families all over HK will come together to celebrate what is very much a time of family festivity, the Chinese New Year. The preparation & accompanying of it are not at all unlike the Christmas spirit in predominantly Christian societies; and people will in fact be doing s'th ...
