Prayer of St Francis MP 202 p1.2. music in.
(Another Dawn)

I mentioned at the beginning, as a sign of a year passing by, the end of school. Well, you probably don't need to be reminded that there are still very many communities of nuns whose life-work is, or has been, devoted to the formal education of young people - something that states now recognise as their responsibility. Though they're not in HK, perhaps one of the best known of these congregations of teaching sisters is the Sacred Heart nuns. Here's something about their founder, in the series of 'women saints' presented by Patricia Porter: TAPE (Mad. Sopl.)
