DER-E-10

For today's public holiday, let's remember in our prayer all the good things God gives us — for, however much we may complain about things not being perfect, we have so much to be grateful for, including the freedom that is ours, all the freedoms we can enjoy here which other peoples don't have and which today's holiday is meant to celebrate..... though this can't be any excuse to forget and ignore the needs of others, here and elsewhere. We have too the freedom Christ has brought us, which allows us to call God our Father
