

Gloria (Mass of St. Francis) In a programme like this, meant for prayer, it is useful I think, from time to time, to talk about prayer itself, as well as suggesting something to pray about, encouraging you to pray yourself, and inviting you to pray with the <sup>formal</sup> prayers I use, next week. It's good too, I think, to listen to what better, more experienced masters of spirituality may have to say. These Thursday's I've been reading from a book by one such master, Paths to Contemplation by Sr Yves Raguin whom some of you listening may have met here in HHS. One of his chapters is helpfully titled 'When you want to pray'. He writes:
