

Our Father (When New Lives...)

A couple of weeks ago I talked a bit about St John Chrysostom, and read a little from one of his sermons. Well, today is his feast day; so here again is a little more from him, a man whose life and character would have suited him admirably for today's world. John Chrysostom was born...

Q.Q. Brw. p 242
ff.

for a prayer in music now, a motet of Thomas Morley "Agnus Dei"

MUSIC [Anthol. Renaiss. Mus. 15]

PRAYER (of day)

Finally, from another homily of St John Chrysostom Q.Q.

Brw. p 648 (Canon of the Mass)