

Lord Have Mercy
(When New Winds)
24

The day of mer, mankind, in the lunar new year - everyone's birthday. And for today, some reflection on mankind's behaviour, from the OT. book that gives us the more well-known quote of a "time to keep, a time for birth....", which I've used before on this programme in the pop-song version 'Turn, Turn, Turn'. This passage, maybe, a comment for our times.

QQ. Bro. I Wk 7 Wed.

For a break for a prayer in music, an unusual version of mankind's prayer to God, Our Father

MUSIC (from Salisbee 2<sup>2</sup>)

A commentary by St Jerome

(QQ. ibid.)