

Haeu Dinn (Solomon) To go back a bit in time, for some thoughts on the gospel of St John, (DEC. 0.20) about Christ as the Good Shepherd — a gospel chapter that has been traditionally used on ~~one~~ of the Sundays early in the Easter season. We had it yesterday, part of it, in our Celtic churches: an occasion, too, for prayer for shepherds of the flock of Christ. for new shepherds to come to join in the caring, protecting, leading ministry of the Church. Here is some of what Pope St Gregory the Great had to say about the Good Shepherd
