When from Exile (Ch 1st)
Sw Factor (Russ)

Last week, in the daily prayer of the church, the Divine office, we had a series of readings from the OT prophet Micah. He was one of the minor prophets the shorter books of the Bible. You don't often hear anything from his message read in the scripture readings at Sunday Mass: [and yet] in many ways the minor prophets are much more "readable" than the more famous ones, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and seem sometimes to have a much more direct bearing on today's world. Anyway, I thought today, to share with you a reading from Micah, as a prayer and reflection
