The Church in S. America is quite a lot in the news these days, one of the countries being Nicaragua where there's been a continuing feud over the presence of priests in the government. Pope John Paul, you may remember, isn't at all keen on this type of involvement by church personnel. Anyway, one of the priests in that government (there are 6 or 5 altogether) is Fr Ernesto Cardinal, a poet, who is minister for culture. I have before used some of his thoughts & expression in these middo prayers — and today again I'd like to share with you something by him. This is called "Within"
