OUR FATHER

The word of Our Father comes to us, in the Bible, in the OT, in three main ways or forms... the Law, and the Prophets (maybe especially the prophets) we're familiar enough with, in this context: at least, they're quoted often enough. But there's also all the Wisdom literature, which has perhaps been a bit neglected, in thinking of the Word of God. As it's happened that recently a number of readings from the Bk of Wisdom have been the appointed scripture passages for the weekday liturgy, I thought we might today, listen again, to one or two of them, in prayerful reflection. First, then, from the very beginning of The Wisdom of Solomon
