

1257
1924

Monday Prayer - 850
15.3.82
4.3.91

Lord of Heaven (Belshazzar?)
Per Concern Tunan
(Norel) Middle Ages
22

LENT PREFACE

Today, on the Lenten theme of prayer, fasting, giving alms, some thoughts from the long distant past — from two 'Fathers of the Church' in the early Christian centuries, in fact, [~~one Greek, one Latin~~]. First, on those three traditional practices of Lent (which of course are not only for Lent — they come directly from our Lord's own instruction and apply to all followers of Him), from St Peter Chrysologus: in early 5th century

His name means "golden speech"

☉☉. Brev. Lent Tue 3
p 154

but one source I looked at suggested that his simple, practical, clear sermons lack the elegance his surname might suggest:

A passionate rebuke now, 'Tristis est Anima Mea', 'My soul is sorrowful'; the setting by the 16-17th Cent. Italian Pomponio Nenna

MUSIC - PRAYERS (Brev.) ⁴¹/₄₂

And now to

St Leo the Great, who was Pope in the middle of the 5th Cent.

☉☉. Brev. Lent Tue 4
182

Non(u) 87
27