

1307
1926

Midday Prayers - 887
21.3.83
18.3.91

Love of Heaven [Behold] [Jan 12]
Song of the Exile
[W: H Open Hands] [15]

LENT PREFACE

Next week is Holy Week — the commemoration of the passion and death of Christ. To prepare, in prayer and reflection, I thought to share with you today, a very old English poem or meditation for Good Friday. It's about the Cross on which Christ died, and it called "The Dream of the Rood", and was written about the year 860: here's part of it for today's prayer @ @. Dream of the Rood [Slide of the Holy p 11]

— from 'The Dream of the Rood'. Now, in music, 'O Vor'anner' — @. all you who pass by the way, look & see if there any sorrow like unto my sorrow" [Gesuualdo]

ARGO-E. 275
12
(3:30)

MUSIC - PRAYERS [Slide p 4]