"To Keep a True Lent"

@@. Brew. p 612 — a poem by Robert Herrick, an English poet of some 300 years ago. His picture of a true Lent reflects especially, I think, a chapter of the prophecy of Isaiah in the Old Testament, also about fasting. Let's listen to this Word of God now, in prayerful reflection to seek God's grace to open our hearts and minds to make this Lent of ours a real time for renewal, for repentance, turning more fully towards Christ our saviour, for reconciliation and forgiveness.
