"Of you my heart has spoken,
'seek his face for evermore..'" (Ps 27)

In these words the Psalmist capture the longing that there is in each one of us. In our 'heart' – the deep part of our self – we not only encounter our own desires and fears, but if we can listen with the ears of our soul, we can also begin to recognise another voice. The voice of "the Spirit that has been poured into our hearts" (Rom.5) that is the source of our life in Christ. These days of retreat is an opportunity to listen in prayer and in the community of prayer to the Holy Spirit speaking within us. To discover again 'the face that we seek' and to recognise it in our lives, our community

Each day a short reflection on the theme will help us 'listen' 'seek', 'find' and 'see' the ways in which Christ is present to us and the Spirit is leading us. The silence of the retreat is designed to give each one the time and space to pray. Each one making the retreat will be accompanied by a spiritual director. A retreat is God's precious gift of time to hear, "Of you my heart has spoken....."
