思維靜院 依納爵靈修中心
XAVIER HOUSE Ignatian Spirituality Centre

At the centre of Jesus' ministry is reconciliation. His life and mission is the fullest human expression of God's loving mercy and forgiveness. It is the source of our Christian hope, and it is reflected in all of the Gospel encounters of Jesus with persons who seek new life and wholeness.

RECONCILIATION and HOPE

As disciples who share that life and mission, we are empowered to forgive: to heal the wounds of sin and division; to unite persons who have suffered the pain of loneliness and separation; to bring light where there is darkness and harmony to a world that is broken by injustice.

Where there is life, there is hope.

In our retreat, we will explore some of the ways that God inspires hope in us by touching our hearts with His love in our personal prayer, and inviting us to share that love in the creation of Christian community.

We will seek new life through the path of reconciliation.

Fr. Peter McIsaac SJ

Peter was born in Canada, but has lived and worked in Jamaica for many years. He has been involved in social ministries, education, and pastoral work, but more recently has focused his ministry on retreat work and the spiritual formation of priests, deacons and lay persons. He has many years of experience directing the Spiritual Exercises, and giving retreats and workshops across the Caribbean, US, Canada, Africa and Asia. He has established an Institute of Spirituality for the English-Speaking Caribbean, and was recently appointed the Director of Synodal Transformation for the Archdiocese of Trinidad. He is also the Superior of the English-Speaking Section of the Caribbean Province.
